WHY SEEK VETERAN SERVICES?

Community and Family Support is important to a Veteran's treatment and recovery.

Veteran Services do more than help the Veteran's recovery, they promote healing for the whole family.

VA MEDICAL CENTER

The VA main campus in Biloxi, Mississippi, offers medical and mental health hospitalization, specialty outpatient care, extended care for older Veterans, and short-term residential treatment for PTSD and/or substance use.

Veterans are encouraged to include their families in working with the health care team to ensure long-term recovery.

Residential Rehabilitation and Treatment Program (RRTP)

(228) 523-5201 or (228) 523-4682

VA OUTPATIENT CLINICS

Primary Care is the entry point to VA Outpatient Care. Primary Care Social Workers offer help with referrals to VA and community resources. Behavioral Health staff are available to provide treatment for mental health, substance use, and relationship issues. VA Chaplains are available to help with spiritual support. Veterans may ask their VA Primary Care team for a referral tailored to their unique situation.
